Home Sweet Home

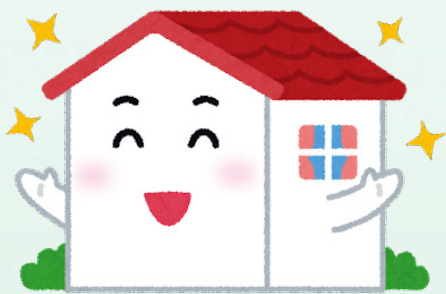

Class: 2A Name: Yeung Ka Him

I love all my family members. They are my biggest supporters anytime I need them. But who is my favourite member among them? Definitely my father!

I love my family. When I have difficulties, they are always the ones who stay with me forever.

As I don't have any siblings, my parents take extra care of me and always accompany me. They take me to the park every week. In the future, I want to travel to different countries with my family. When I grow up, I will treat my parents to a wonderful trip to a place they want to go. I can't wait for that day to come.

I am really thankful for what my parents have done for me. I don't know how I can express all my gratitude to my family with words, so I will try my best to study hard and help them with the housework from now on to say thank you to them.

One of my favorite things about my home is that we have a big backyard. I love playing outside and running around in the grass.

Home is a happy place where I can play with my toys, eat yummy food, and cuddle with my family. I love my home because it's cozy and warm, and I feel safe there. It's the best place in the world!

But most of all, I love my home because it's where my family is. My family loves me and takes care of me, and I feel safe and happy when I'm with them. I'm grateful for my home and all the love and warmth it provides.

"Other things may change us, but we start and end with the family."

I have my father, mother, brother and me in my family. I love my family very much, because they are the closest people in my life.

My favourite family member is my father. His name is Wai Wai. He is forty years old. He is tall and thin. He is an account manager. He works at an office. He is responsible for managing customers' accounts. He is the bravest and smartest person in our family.

He is one of the most good-tempered people in our family. He seldom shouts at me and teaches me a lot of life principles, so I think he is the best father in the world. I want to travel the world with my family when I grow up.

Thank you for giving me my life. Thank you for your love. I will try my best to be a good person. I love you forever.

On my birthday, my parents took me to Hong Kong Disneyland. We played many games. I was so happy. Then, we had a buffet at the Four Seasons Hotel. There are lots of foods such as seafood and spaghetti. They are very yummy.
